

Has your church recently called a new Christian Educator?

Or could your current church school, youth ministry or confirmation leader benefit from specialized training in Christian Education?

Then you may want to consider...

ASSOCIATES IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Sponsored by Hartford Seminary and
The Connecticut Conference of
The United Church of Christ

For 37 years the A.C.E. Program has trained Church Educators, Lay Leaders, and Clergy for the educational ministries of the Church. A.C.E. offers a balanced blend of both the academic and the practical aspects of Christian Education to effectively equip the dedicated Church professional.

A.C.E. Program Director and Teacher is The Rev. Charles (Chuck) Ericson, who has served in the position for 13 years.

A.C.E. classes are held from October through April at Hartford Seminary.

Registration is limited, however there is still room in the upcoming session that begins September 25th.

*“We learn and grow together
And share the Living Word
Our hopes and dreams are realized
By teaching what we’ve heard!”*
(From ACE 25th Anniversary Song)

For an overview of the course, visit: <http://www.ctucc.org/program/ACE.html>
For more information about the 2007-2008 program, contact Chuck Ericson at chucke@ctucc.org.