

 RESOURCES for Immigration and Deportation Defense SUPPORTS *****

Hartford Deportation Defense Team- meets in Htfd. 2x per month. Go to their Facebook page to make a donation for local immigrants' needs- helps with rides to courts; attorneys, basic needs.

CT Bail Fund- Also has a Facebook page- Gratefully receives donations to support detainees in posting bail money. CT has the highest bail cost in the country.

United Latinos en Accion (ULA)- Facebook page; has meetings on Mondays on Howe St. in New haven. –Also accepts donations for migrants and families, legal fees etc..

Emmaus Migrant Advocacy Project- Provides support and solidarity on both sides of the border here in CT and Mexico- assists with psychosocial, medical and legal needs. (See MaryJoan)

CT Students for a Dream- website

Refugee & Immigrant IRIS- Integrated Services-Bridgeport

St. Patrick/St. Anthony Church- Hartford, CT – Accompaniment and Support teams

Shoreline InDivisible- Guilford, CT – Gini King

Immigration, Refugee and Asylum Task Teammacuccimmigrationrefugee@googlegroups.com

KINO Border Initiative – Nogales, Arizona –has a website and shelter on the Mexico side of the border; Accepts donations for shelter items; clothing and first aid supplies.

NoMore Deaths/NoMasMuertes- website page. Tucson AZ- does work in the desert to provide first aid and legal assistance to keep families together; meetings 2x per month in Tucson; Desert rides to do water and food supply drop offs. Advocates against Border Patrol Abuses

Tucson Samaritans and Green Valley Samaritans in AZ - same as above ! Check out website or see MaryJoan

South Texas Human Rights Center- Falfurrias TX- provides assistance for families of detainees and the missing. Eddie Canales- 361-325-2555

Catholic Charities' Humanitarian Respite Center – 700 N. Virgen de San Juan Blvd. in San Juan, TX, 78539 (956)702-4088 –accepts donations for food, clothing and hygiene items.

RAICES- provides legal support for detainees in TX – Website; main office in San Antonio.

Annunciation House in El Paso- Website. Provides for basic needs of detainees upon release; as does the Casa Alitas in Tucson.

San Diego Rapid Response Network- shelternvolunteer@jfssd.org

BorderAngels- info@borderangels.org 619-487-0249

ValueOurFamilies- vivian@apalanet.org 614-352—0066

Church World Service- nandersen@cwsglobal.org –

Faithful America – faithfulamerica.org

Voices from the Border- Facebook page

National Immigration Law Center – website

Thank you for your interest in helping to provide solidarity, building community and bridges not walls. This long standing problem was recognized years ago; but the powers that be have not been brave enough to address the issues and root causes of poverty and violence in southern Mexico, Guatemala and El Salvador; They rather blame the very people, (our brothers and sisters) that are stuck in their very broken system.

Paz ~ MaryJoan Picone, LCSW MPicone@CHRHEALTH.ORG

Emmaus Migrant Advocacy Project